

Showcase your treasures with the Majestic II wooden grandfather clock. This curio clock has an antique-inspired design and is equipped with six shelves for plenty of storage, which are safely enclosed behind a locked glass door.

Cherry-Finish Hardwoods: This wooden grandfather clock was designed and crafted in the USA from select hardwoods and veneers. A Windsor Cherry finish and arched pediment impart stately style to this functional accent.

Arabic Numerals: The cast dial of this distinctive clock has intricate corner spandrels and a center disk, along with decorative moon phases in a midnight blue and gold-tone finish. Black Arabic numerals adorn the silver-tone chapter disk and coordinate with the black hands.

Spacious Shelves: A brass-finish pendulum and weight shells sit in the center of this curio clock. This timepiece also has six glass shelves—three of which can be adjusted to accommodate your collectibles. The case also features a mirrored back and bottom to showcase items from all angles.

Adjustable Chimes: This timepiece plays your choice of Westminster, St. Michael, or Whittington chimes with a strike on the hour, along with quarter-hour chimes. There's an automatic nighttime chime shutoff feature for silence after bedtime.

Heirloom Nameplate: A brass Heirloom Nameplate comes engraved with your name and date to commemorate your special occasion. Also included with this timepiece are an Heirloom Record Document and brass-finish capsule.

Cable-Driven Movement: This wooden grandfather clock has cable-driven movement.
