

Bring traditional style to your space with the Wilford wooden grandfather clock from Howard Miller. This elegant timepiece has an antique-inspired design, along with a cherry finish and brass detailing to complement your other furnishings.

Durable Design: This USA-made floor clock is crafted from select hardwoods and veneers for durability, with floor levelers for stability on any surface. The Cherry Bordeaux finish imparts a rich look to this statement timepiece. The case also features a mirrored back to showcase items from all angles.

Refined Details: Brass-finish Arabic numerals adorn the polished brass-finish dial of this wooden floor clock. A moon phase and star illustration appear at the top of the dial, which is also decorated with intricately detailed corner spandrels and an ornate center disk. Inside the case are a brass-finish pendulum and weight shells for timeless sophistication.
