

Bring modern style to your home with the Oscar wall clock from Howard Miller. This bold timepiece has a streamlined appearance and is done in black and silver to coordinate with any decor.

Contemporary Styling: This rectangular analog wall clock has a metal frame with an aged silver finish. The back panel has a satin ebony stain to complement the silver tone. Raised bars mark the hours on this sleek timepiece; they also have an aged silver finish to match the hour and minute hands.

Eye-Catching Details: The Howard Miller logo appears on the blackened steel center of this wooden clock. What sets this timepiece apart is the pendulum, which has the same aged silver finish as the frame and hands.

Makes a Stunning Focal Piece: Display this clock in the living room, dining room, or bedroom for gallery-inspired style. It can also be hung in the home office to impart modern flair to your workspace.

Quartz Movement: Quartz, battery-operated movement requires two AA batteries, which are not included.
